

North Carolina Speeding Laws

NORTH CAROLINA SPEEDING LAWS

N.C.G.S. § 20-141 - Speed Restrictions

- Maximum speed limit: 70 mph on interstate highways
- 65 mph on four-lane divided highways
- 55 mph on two-lane highways
- 35 mph in business and residential districts
- 25 mph in school zones when children present

Penalties for Speeding Violations

- 1-10 mph over: $25 fine + court costs
- 11-15 mph over: $30 fine + court costs
- 16+ mph over: $50 fine + court costs + possible license points
- 15+ mph over 55 mph: 3 license points
- 25+ mph over speed limit: 4 license points

Aggravated Speeding (N.C.G.S. § 20-141.5)

- Speeding 15+ mph over limit when limit is 55+ mph
- Automatic court appearance required
- Possible license suspension
- Insurance points assessment
- Criminal penalties for excessive speeds

School Zone Violations

- Double fines in active school zones
- Mandatory court appearance for 15+ mph over
- Possible license suspension
- Community service requirements